

GWI Refund Policy

Last Updated: October 20, 2025

As a nonprofit organization, the Global Wellness Institute (GWI) values every contribution and strives for transparency in its financial practices. This Refund Policy outlines our approach to donations and digital content access.

1. Donations

All donations made to the Global Wellness Institute are considered final and non-refundable, except as required by law. Your contributions help support GWI's ongoing research, education, and programming.

If you believe a donation was made in error, please contact us within 14 days at info@globalwellnessinstitute.org. We will review your request promptly.

2. Free Digital Resources

GWI offers many downloadable reports, webinars, and research papers free of charge. These resources are non-returnable and non-refundable once accessed or downloaded.

3. Paid Events and Programs

Unless otherwise noted at the time of registration, all event fees, symposium registrations, and program payments are non-refundable. In limited cases, credits or transfers may be offered at GWI's discretion.

4. Contact
